

ADULT RACE LEAGUE TOWNE CHALLENGE 2022

To All Adult Ski Racing Enthusiasts:

It is happening, come be a part of the Towne Challenge at Mt. Holiday. This group continues to offer a fresh, hip twist on what we all have grown to love in downhill ski racing, maximizing a relaxed but competitive environment so as to ensure total participation by interested skiing enthusiasts. Check out the flexible - for everyone format, cool scoring and great LOCAL skiing gem, get out of the house and ride. WHOOP WHOOP!

Who: All area ski/snowboard/tele riders who have the need for speed, or just a good time and a reason to get out of the house while supporting the local ski hill. Registration closes when there are 75 participants total signed up and will be on a first come first served basis. Registration deadline is January 12th, 2022. Must be 21 or older to compete.

When: Wednesdays, first “practice” race will be held Jan 12th, 2022 and regular season races will begin the following Wednesday and end March 2, 2022.

6:00pm	course set
6-6:30pm	course inspection
6:30-7:45pm	RACE, first 2 runs scored, additional runs for bragging rights
7:45-8	tear down (all help is appreciated!)
8-8:30pm	results in the T-BAR

Format: To accommodate all of your busy schedules we will follow an extremely relaxed format. There will be no run orders and all participants can show up to get there 2 runs at their convenience. The only expectation is that all runs be finished by 8pm (or sooner depending upon the number of participants on a given night. All scores will be the combination of each participant’s first two runs in the course each evening. Sorry, no practice runs.

Scoring: Points given in each race will be equivalent to the finishing place of each participant. All DNF/ DQ will be scored in accordance with the FIS penalty which is the number of racers in the field +1. All DNS (no shows) shall be the total of racers plus 5. There will be 7 races from which the worst 2 results will be dropped for the overall scoring.

NO SPEED SUITS ALLOWED. An extra penalty of 50 points shall be assessed to any participant sporting lycra or any other similar fabric with nothing covering it!
